W. H. STOKES&CO.,

We publish this morning a call on Col. A. H. Markland to become a candidate for Congress in the First District of this State. We mve known the Colonel long and intimate'y, and it gives us pleasure to speak of him as a gentleman of rare talents and large and varied exterience in public affairs. He was placed in charge of the army mail service of the Southwest at the beginning of the war, and we know that his services have been valuable to the overnment and entirely satisfactory to the army. He followed the flag from Cairo to PENNSYLVANIA .- We invite the attention of our Vicksburg and New Orleans, and from this city | citizens and numerons readers to the consplcuto Atlanta and Savannah. Having been called East, he was with Sherman at Raleigh, and with Grant at Petereburg and Richmond. Guided by his manly instincts, he was always at the front, and whenever we heard of the cap are of a rebel city, the next morning's despatches invariably announced the establi hment of a post-office under orders from Colonel Markland. The Colonel would make an able from the Company's property on Oil Creek, Pa., representative of his native district.

Suicing.-A poor widow lady, lately from the South, visited a friend of here by the name of Cochran, who resides on Ninth street, between Madison and Chestnut. She complained of Iceling very sick. Dr. Anderson was called in, and be was informed by the patient that nothing more was the matter with her than a disorder ed stomach. Medicine was prescribed for her by the physician, but she refused to take it stating that she had some powders of her own. She was in great misery during the whole night, and until had-past ten o'clock, when death put an end to her suffering. When the physician med yesterday morning, and was informed strange cond et, he ggested that he pockets be searched. One powder, wrapp d in a piece of newspaper, was f d, labelled "poi- f ill recommend the ; n' l'e to thi new hous: con " This siden d' erven 'ne' t matter. She had taken arsenic, and came to her friend a house to le. Some stranger avmy al her to Mr Cochran's h and a ter a few b utos close conversation, I t th

GUE HEAS IN HART COUNTY .- Golder's band about y small amount consider by the terrible of guestilas is roving through the State. On char eter of his et me. Fica last the cotlaws made a raid on Hard ville, and ro sed the mer bants of goods and They were extremely disorderly, beating m v of the citizens over the head with the batt end vacated the town before the ! al resid uts rmed themselves, and started in pu n't o them. They we'e overtaken, and, in a sligh skirmish which ensued, one of the desperad se of the stolen goods were recaj ured. Golder is a young man, and is the son of a deceased er, who formerly resided in Greene urg His lawless career must soon come to a close. Sucrilation is no longer a paring in to ution in Kentucky. The free use of the gallows has a wholesome effect upon the scoundr s.

PROCLAMATION OF THE GOVERNOR OF KENTUCKY. COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY,) FINECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
FEANKFORT, April 21, 1865.

In view of the sad calamity which has faller pon our country by the assassination of Abraam Lincoln, the President of the United States of America, it becomes us as a people to hume ourselves before a merciful God, and pray Him that the sin of our people, which has culminated in such great crime, be forgiven and stored to alis favor and to peace and unity

For this purpose Thursday, the 1st day of June, 1865, is hereby appointed as a day of fasting, homiliation, and prayer. Ou that day the people of Kentucky are lu-voked to suspend all secular buliness, and at the usual hour for service attend their respective places of worship, and engage in the selemn and sarnest observance of the day as one for humiliation before God and prayer for His forciving mercy and sustaining grace in this our day o Governor of Kentucky.

STORY OF DR. BEECHER -Heury Ward Beech er in one of his Sunday night Lecture-Room Talks, related the following incident of the religions experience of his father, Dr. Lyman

Beccher:

On a certain occasion, when my sister (Mrs. Stowe), and my brother Charles were taking down a narrative of his life, and reading to him what they had got down, that they might suggest to his mind some other things, and catch them also, they perused in his hearing some of the early correspondence between him and my own mother. Among the letters was one in which he expressed to ber his doubts and fears in respect to certain great doctrines of grace, and, while it was being read, he says, "Sopplithat man is a fool! "Bat," father," says Charles, "it is your letter," "Well," says Charles, "it is your letter," "Well," says takher, "I don't care whose letter it is, the man who wrote it is a fool. It must be altered. It must not go in so" "But," says Charles, "we want it as a record of how you felt then" "Why," said father, "if I had him and her both it an inquiry meeting I could put them right in a minute!" There he was projected against his past self with all bis might. He was going to just himself on a rock, as though he were a case Beecher: t himself ou a rock, as though he were a co n his own inquiry meeting.

The word seemed a mockery to poor mirrored the purity of her soul.

The night was waxing late when Clarence birds sang gleefully the live-long day; wild flowers blossomed and tall trees through the purity of her soul.

CITIZENS OF LOUISVILLE, OFFICERS
AND SOLDIERS OF THE UNION. God has called our great captain. Abraham incolu, the wise, the noble, the great, and with gems rarest and priceless, the words we would use to tell the world of the love and veneration a weeping nation bears her noble hero.

Lincoin—hero, martyr—killed by hellish treason, by a flend incarnate. And yet God has seen yery good to us. We can now see how He has held back this bloody hend which has howered around our President from the day he enis held back the fire of the fire in the day he energed around our President from the day he energed Washleaton.

But the sunrdian angel of our untion held that devil by the wrist—he could not strike until the great pilot had brought his presidens ship out from dark storm-cloud and marks might, through billows seas of blood, he sight of the dawning golden raws of the morning of place.

Then, his work being done, and so done as to last forever, he tell, fell in the ripeness of his wisdom, in the meridian of his glory. isdom, in the meridian of his glory.
